A WORKSHOP FOR MARTIN BROWNING

7-8 JULY 2016, NUFFIELD COLLEGE OXFORD

Welcome to the Workshop for Martin Browning. This Workshop brings together friends, colleagues, co-authors and former students. Like Martin, most of us work in that “misty area where microeconomic theory meets micro-data”. We’re all deeply fond of Martin and have benefitted in various ways over the years from knowing him. We are delighted to be able to organise this event to celebrate that fact.

Ian Crawford & Tom Crossley
